Florida Securities Dealers Association Welcomes Incoming
Executive Officers to the Board of Governors
*2019 Roster of Officers Announced

FLORIDA, January 14, 2019 — The Florida Securities Dealers Association [FSDA] is pleased to announce the 2019 incoming executive officers to the FSDA Board of Governors. The new officers include:

President – Alex Sarafoglu with Bank of America Merrill Lynch,
Vice President – Kacy Donlon with Wiand Guerra King,
Treasurer – Dan Newman with Nelson Mullins Broad and Cassel,
Secretary – Eric Siber with Capital Forensics, Inc., and President ex-Officio – Alex Sabo with Bressler, Amery & Ross, P.C.

The officers will serve in their executive leadership role for the FSDA and its members for the term of one year. Membership in the FSDA is open to all broker-dealer firms, investment advisers, law firms and consultants involved in or assisting the securities industry in Florida. “I am excited to take the helm of a great organization of which I have been a member for many years,” says Sarafoglu. “Along with the extremely talented professionals joining me on the executive team, I look forward to helping the FSDA continue to accomplish its mission.” With more than 60 Board members representing all segments of the securities industry, the FSDA is continually expanding its efforts, providing new opportunities for networking and improving the business climate for the industry in Florida.

Since 1933, FSDA has been the voice of the securities industry in Florida. Its mission is to advocate on behalf of the industry and provide education opportunities for its members and Florida's investing public.
